

Liar, Liar Small Group Questions - Just Be Yourself

Talk about a time you met a little kid that was a terror. How did they turn out? Did it shock you? Were you that kid?

What would it have looked like if they just stayed the same their entire life? Would they be happy? Would they still love their child?

In Matthew 23:25-27. Jesus gives the Pharisees some very hard teaching. Why did he do that? Do you think he loves the Pharisees? Why or why not?

What does it mean to clean the inside of the dish? How do we do that? What are some practical steps?

During the message we said that “God loves you and wants you to be the best Jesus you can be in your context for your sake and the sake of those around you.” Unpack that in your own life. What does it look like? Give specific examples.

Read Matthew 5:27-30. This is another strong message but it is not necessarily aimed at the Pharisees. What does that verse look like in your life? What things might you be trading for a valley of rubbish rather than life with God?

Matthew 5:48 says to “be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.” How do you manage the tension between God loving you exactly as you are at the same time encouraging you to be more like Jesus?

Liar, Liar Small Group Questions - Just Be Yourself

Talk about a time you met a little kid that was a terror. How did they turn out? Did it shock you? Were you that kid?

What would it have looked like if they just stayed the same their entire life? Would they be happy? Would they still love their child?

In Matthew 23:25-27. Jesus gives the Pharisees some very hard teaching. Why did he do that? Do you think he loves the Pharisees? Why or why not?

What does it mean to clean the inside of the dish? How do we do that? What are some practical steps?

During the message we said that “God loves you and wants you to be the best Jesus you can be in your context for your sake and the sake of those around you.” Unpack that in your own life. What does it look like? Give specific examples.

Read Matthew 5:27-30. This is another strong message but it is not necessarily aimed at the Pharisees. What does that verse look like in your life? What things might you be trading for a valley of rubbish rather than life with God?

Matthew 5:48 says to “be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.” How do you manage the tension between God loving you exactly as you are at the same time encouraging you to be more like Jesus?